Imagine having the opportunity to spend one day with some of the most unique people on our planet. Extraordinary people from every area of thought, work and culture.

The UP Experience™ offers the unique voices of 16 passionate presenters, each speaking for 20 quick and powerful minutes on their domain expertise. Even in today's information rich world, we are too busy in our daily lives to absorb and gain insight into important developments leading us into the future.

One day a year, in Houston, Texas, we now have a way to learn "What's UP".
